OPENING PRAYER

Friday, July 2, 1982

Each day LIVING VICTORIOUSLY begins with flag raising and a prayer by Dr. Wierwille.

Father, on this special day for me, this Friday, July 2nd, I thank you for my Dorothea, for our sons and daughters, for our sons- and daughters-in-law, for our grandchildren and for the HOPE that is in our earthly family because we are united in a greater family with all the believers worldwide.

Father, our heart's cry of triumph is in the hope of your Son's soon return, when your Son our lord and savior will truly be king of kings and lord of lords and that all men everywhere will know and serve you, the one and only true God. Father, we have girded up the loins of our minds and hope for the grace that is to be brought unto us at the appearing of Jesus Christ. We are rejoicing in hope of your Son's soon return this day as we are patient in the days and times in which we have been called to live. Amen.

"In leadership you can get so sophisticated and arrogant and intellectually stupid nobody can understand you. Keep it simple."

"You cannot lose eternal life, but you can sure as shootin' lose the rewards."

"We should not allow the Adversary to hurt us. We just stay put on the Word."

The Way Orchestra

On May 24 was the first rehearsal of The Way International Orchestra for LIVING VICTORIOUSLY. Comprised of thirty-seven musicians, the orchestra has only one full-time Headquarters Staff member, conductor and composer Jim McKee.

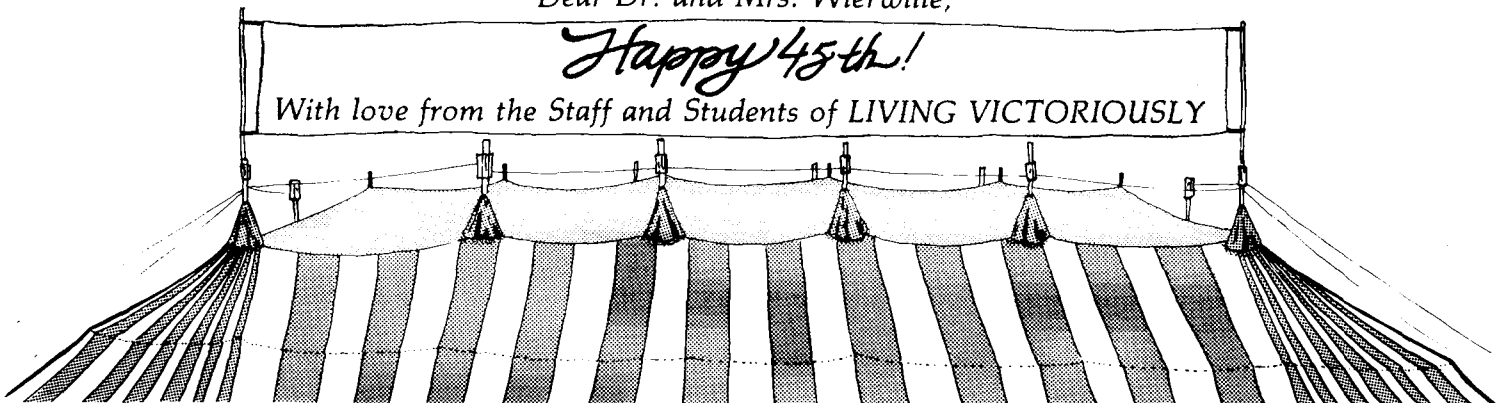

Since their initial rehearsal the orchestra has mastered all new musical scores for two full-length plays, plus six "Big Band" numbers and twenty other pieces, as well as back-up scores and other odds and ends for the class.

Most orchestra members are in The Way Corps and come from the USA, Great Britain, Canada, West Germany and Finland. Their musical backgrounds are as varied as their cultural backgrounds, and yet they have come together as one body to produce an amazing sound which has blessed us all.

Dear Dr. and Mrs. Wierwille,

Happy 45th!

With love from the Staff and Students of LIVING VICTORIOUSLY

GOT ANY RIVERS...?

Elda Carvallo of Santiago, Chile, has worked in the Santiago Tax Office for several years. Normally her salary would not provide her with the money she needed to come to LIVING VICTORIOUSLY, but she never doubted that God would come through for her.

Prior to the deadline for registration, Elda took a promotional exam for the tax office and was the only one in her job eligible for a pay increase. The increase, she found out, included the entire previous year's salary, and the additional sum she received was exactly what she needed to come to LIVING VICTORIOUSLY.

Then she received a further promotion which will give her additional income after she returns to Chile—a great testimony to the truth that Christians prosper!

Super-Conquerors In the Skies

Three stewardesses sharing an apartment in Forest Hills hear worship manifestations before reporting to LaGuardia in the morning. The pilot who takes the 747 from O'Hare to Dallas operates the manifestation of believing through a storm. The air traffic controller at L.A. International registers a day shift co-worker for the foundational class at his evening Twig.

All five people are graduates of Power for Abundant Living who work in the airline industry. They are typical of others who have committed one year as Outreach Athletes—Airways.

From Rock of Ages '82 to Rock of Ages '83 they spend at least 48 hours a week in their jobs and in moving God's Word anywhere their schedules take them. Outreach Athletes also live together when possible and all spend the first 30 minutes of each day reading the Word and praying for the outreach of the ministry.

If you are presently working in the airline industry, stop by The Way Tree Headquarters tent at LIVING VICTORIOUSLY to get more details about this rewarding avenue of commitment and service.

A Letter Home

Dear Folks,

The newspaper for this class is called The Daily Victory. Nothing could be more appropriate. A believer's life, living in the HOPE of Christ's return, is a matter of claiming victory on a daily basis. This class has confronted each of us with that powerful truth.

Everywhere I look, people are making major decisions about their lives. The Word spoken here demands change.

Even Ed and Lois have decided to go WOW (we're still working on Alison and Frank). I'll tell you who all these people are when I get home.

Love,
Pete
