THE DAILY CALL

NUMBER 3

HIS NAME IS WONDERFUL

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1980

Day of the Land

"God's Word tells us that our responsibility is to serve and preserve the land," organic farmer Ira Hearne said as he watched youngsters pet, ride and observe the many animals at the Children's Zoo. "As we learn to treat, appreciate and handle what God gave us, we will be closer to the land than ever before. If we don't, we will be a sick generation."

Today's theme for the Rock of Ages is "Day of the Land." The many events prepared for the day are designed to teach a greater appreciation for the God-given animal, vegetable and mineral resources we have, as well as proper stewardship of them.

Beginning at 7 :00 a.m. in the Main Tent, the day will open with prayer, songs and fellowship. Later in the morning, Mr. Andrew Skapura, former employee of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service and current specialized nutrition consultant, will speak.

The afternoon schedule includes sharings by individuals experienced in organic gardening, food drying, canning, grinding wheat and sprouting. Dr. Gabriel Ortiz who grows a variety of vegetables in wading pools in his Florida home and Ohio native Ruth Hess who specializes in hydroponics (gardening in water instead of soil) will be sharing on container gardening.

Tours to the Brookside Laboratory in New Knoxville, the foremost soil, plant and animal nutrition research center in the United States, will be available beginning at 1:00 p.m. Registration for the tours will be handled at the Garden Display Tent next to the Children's Zoo until 12:00 noon.

Featured at the Children's Zoo are pony rides from 9:00-10:30 a.m. and from 1:00-4:00 p.m. There will also be a sheep dog demonstration at 3:00 p.m.

"Rewards are contingent upon faithful service."

"The struggle for worthiness is defeating."

"If you had to suffer your way to heaven, you'd be miserable when you got there."

"Our God is not a failure; He is a deliverer."

"We have to take advantage of our standing in the household as we mature in service."

"When any man ceases to love, then man's reason for living ends."

Time for Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is the life-style of God's household, those called to serve. At a Twig fellowship held under the Living Room Tent yesterday, the believers recounted incidents that had blessed them at Rock of Ages '80.

"As I was going to work," one girl reported, "a fellow ran up and asked if I had seen someone we both knew. I said 'no'; but let's pray. There's power in prayer. Right after we thanked God, the person he was looking for came around the corner."

"I was asked to be in the teenagers' play that's going on here this week," reported an enthused young man.

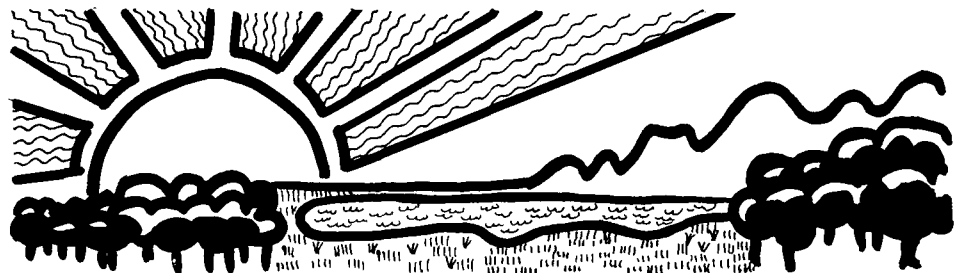

"I lost my sleeping bag," said another young man. "One guy in Bless Patrol tracked it down after an hour and brought it back to me."

Another Twig member related, "I received answers to so many prayers, and peace in my heart to boot, because of the time I decided to spend in the House of His Healing Presence."

Whether it is a Twig at the Rock of Ages or anywhere in the world, it is a time for thanks to God.

DAY OF THE LAND continued

Wrapping up the "Day of the Land" is a special Way Productions "High Country Dōō" beginning after the evening teaching in the Main Tent. Musical entertainment of a country-western flavor will be provided by Family Crest, Red Wing, Joyful Noise and other groups, in a fashion similar to that presented in our "High Country Caravan" television pilots.

Be sure to participate in the many events from dawn to dusk designed to teach you more about the greatness of God's creation and how you and your family can live more abundantly in the land.

Proverbs 28:19a:

He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread.
