There is a brand new baby girl named Carolyn Ruth who is the first baby born during the Rock of Ages '83. Her daddy, a first-time father, is in the TV production tonight. Can you guess who he is?

Highlights from

Reaching the World with the Word: Go Tell
"The Unity of the Messenger with the Message"
by Rev. Ralph Dubofsky

Haggai 1:13	Isaiah 6:5-9
II Cor. 4:13	Exodus 4:10-18
Exodus 3:7-12;4:1	Jer. 1:5-19
II Cor. 5:20	Ezekiel 2:1-6
I Cor. 1:17	John 20:19-22
I Cor. 15:3	Acts 1:8
John 7:16-18	Acts 26:16-22
Heb. 1:14	Romans 10:9,10,13-18

Without unity there can be no great outreach. We need unity not just among ourselves, but each individual must have unity with God and His Word. This unity flows from the belief of the message by the messenger.

Keys to Go Tell

1. Obey God's call
2. Faithfully speak
3. Get rid of sin consciousness
4. Go!
5. Don't doubt yourself.
6. Don't worry about God backing up His Word.
7. Don't fear rejection.
8. Don't rationalize your way out of it.

The logical expression of believing is action, and the logical action of the messenger is to speak the message.

Throughout the ages, the bottom line of all commitment to the true God has been obedience to His calling.

If you're held by the Word, you've got to go and you've just got to tell!

Many times God's call to send someone is unsettling to that person. But it's God's call and He doesn't make mistakes.

You've got to be at peace with God and have His peace reigning in your mind to speak. He delivers you so you can speak.

"Oh, I'm Camping"

"Tent City" breeds unique arrangements. The Pfeifles, who are Twig coordinators, and their three children sleep together in one main tent. Outside the tent is a large canopy, surrounded by three smaller tents which house eight believers in their Twig. The canopy serves as the living room area, where the Twig meets for prayer, occasional meals and fellowship.

Jyseppi and Mike met because their tents are close to each other and they discovered that they are both professional musicians. For them, the virtues of tent-living include: "the constant opportunity to meet people that you'd never meet anywhere else. You hear believers talking outside your tent and it becomes so easy to meet the needs of total strangers."

Everyone agrees that the closeness to other believers, the proximity to "nature" and the sharing of lives makes "Tent City" a very special place at the Rock of Ages.

Totally Awesome

Follow the strains of music and hordes of teenagers to the Afternoon Stage. There you'll find Takit, sharings by high school Outreach Athletes and people deciding to go WOW. The Afternoon Stage is on the main grounds beyond the gate between the Corps tents, and past the green Ermal Owens Building. Between 2:30 and 4:30 each afternoon, you can find entertainment and fellowship that truly is "totally awesome."

If you requested an application for The Way Corps before the Rock of Ages, but have not yet received one, please stop by The Way Corps Display Tent between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. to pick up one.

The Translations Department is looking for willing and able believers who can produce high-quality translations of ministry materials in other languages. Do you qualify? If so, please come to an orientation meeting for translators, Wednesday, August 17. Be in front of the arch at the main entrance to the Outreach Services Center by 2:30 p.m.

FOR CORPS GRADS ONLY

Corps Vet T-shirts with the new Way Corps logo are now on sale at the Bookstore for $8.00 apiece.

It's the Rock of Ages; do you know where your children are? Make sure your children are constantly supervised, and if one "gets away," go immediately to Central Office to find him.

WOW TRAINING

WOW training starts on Thursday morning at 7:00 in The Way Big Top Auditorium. Please be in your seats by 6:55 a.m.
