BYE WOWS

THANKS, WORKERS!

Shuttle drivers, ice cream scoopers, and our faithful "bowl patrol" work together with hundreds of others to make the Rock of Ages a yearly success. Grateful for each Rock of Ages worker, Rev. Bill Winegarner, Rock of Ages Director, said, "I especially want to thank the 1,793 members of our family off the field who have volunteered to work. We all appreciate their time and abilities."

A PIECE OF THE ROCK

Maybe not everyone from your hometown Twig was able to come to the Rock of Ages. You can help them enjoy part of our family reunion by taking home "a piece of the Rock." Extra "Daily Tell-It-Grams" are available at Central Office, and the latest issue of Heart can be picked up at The Way Magazine Tent. You can still purchase blueprint renderings of The Word Over The World Auditorium at the Auditorium display for $.50. A final visit to the Hearts and Crafts Tent and the Rock of Ages Bookstore will enable you to pick up music and teaching tapes, books, cards, and unique memorabilia that will enable your Twig to enjoy the Rock of Ages all year long.

In order to succeed in our spiritual contest as athletes of the spirit, we need vision and commitment to that vision—a vision we deem more important than our lives.

The harvest is those whom God has called to be His own, who have eyes to see and ears to hear.

Mankind can have nothing for which someone is not prepared to pay the price.

Commitment means to say yes to God's Word.

The walk of commitment is a walk of great love and great service.

For men and women called to serve there are no excuses, only challenging opportunities.

Most work for money and the temporal rewards of possessions, power and prestige. Men and women called to serve work for a sense of worth.

Possessions and money with no purpose build only great monuments of nothing.

The return of Christ as set forth in the Scriptures of truth gives man a motive, a reason for action, making every believer's life worthwhile, which brings forth the life of a doulos, the highest type of heroism.

You and I are the torch-bearers, the chosen vessels of our day and time.

MINI-WOW

"It was great to be a Mini-WOW," said 11-year-old Mark Labour as he prepared to work on his craft at the Children's Fellowship Tent yesterday. His 10-year-old sister, Sandi, nodded enthusiastically. "You learn to speak God's Word and not be afraid," she emphasized. The Labour children, along with their mother, Stephanie, have just returned from their year of WOW Ambassador service in Boise, Idaho. Mini-WOW training continues today from 7:45 a.m. until noon at the Children's Pavilion. Approximately 150 youngsters will be joining their parents to "Go Tell" as WOW Ambassadors this year.

What a Family!

And can we eat! Daily we consume over 5,000 hamburgers, 4,000 cups of yogurt, 5,000 bags of dried fruits and nuts, 2,000 baskets of chicken, 5,000 pints of milk, 2,000 pizzas, 3,000 jugs of water, and massive quantities of other foods, drinks, and snacks. Special thanks to Mrs. Dorothy Owens for her help in flipping hamburgers in the Quick Quality Foods Tent yesterday, as well as the thousands of other able hands and willing hearts that have kept us happy and healthy at the Rock!
