"The Mystery Issue"

"Don't forfeit the more abundant life while advocating and promoting the more abundant life. When does anyone get enough love? NEVER! Therefore, the love of money is the root of all evil. I Timothy 6:10 Anyone who unjustly attacks and injures another must in justification of himself become that man's enemy.

To be bitter and resentful to those who criticize and find fault is for small men with immature minds who aren't busy thinking and working for more eternal matters.

Religious leaders today don't talk any less about the Bible, they just say less.

Many who seem to portray themselves as preservers of the peace are in reality perverters of the peace.

A man once asked Dr. George Washington Carver, "Who besides you can do these things?" "Everyone can," said Carver, "if only they believe it." Tapping a large Bible on a table, he added, "The secrets are all here. In God's promises. These promises are real, as real as, and more infinitely solid and substantial than, this table which the materialist so thoroughly believes in."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"We pay a price for loving-- but the price we pay for not loving is always much greater. The price for not forgiving, not loving, is more than I can afford to pay."

Fragrance of Mystery

"How many of us have walked into a home and the first thing that hit us was a most delicious smell of spaghetti cooking? Right away we are able to identify the tempting odor but we have not actually seen the scrumptuous dish or let the sweet morsels touch our taste buds. But when the time is right and the food is served, then we are able to eat and enjoy. This is how the mystery has become real to me. I knew what the mystery and one body were. I could identify the delicious smell. But it wasn't until I put on more of the Word and the love of God in the renewed mind in manifestation that I was able to begin to see the greatness. As I ate of the beauty of the mystery there was such an imprint left on my heart. The kind of impression that lingers and lingers. The kind we reminisce about until again we sit and eat until we are full."

"The greatness of the mystery, that's why you're in the Corps."

Christian Marriage

"Living in a mini-mystery. Therefore any attack on the marriage relation is an attack on the mystery. See what part of the body of Christ your mate desires to excel in, and use those "gifts" and manifestations in which you are excelling with the love of God in your renewed mind, to build up your mate." -Shirley Pierce (this was shared with Shirley by Rosann Holdren)

MYSTERY MOMENTS

Grace spoke to me and placed me in the depths of the heavenlies
Mercy was all around as I kissed the lips of righteousness
Peace lead me down a starlit path where I was joyfully greeted by a host of heavens best
Sanctification held my hand and sat down beside me on a Rock
Love was at my right hand and called me her friend
I was awe-struck as I gazed upon the beauties all around me ...

-- Becki Belcher --

"The mystery is a way of life for us who have been so blessed to be called and taught the Word."

---Mike Davis---

"Words can't express to you the thrill that the Heartbeat Bulletin was to me. It is one of the most inspiring, literary works that I have ever read and if the Corps gets 1/2 the blessing that I do reading it, it adds fuel to their fire. Adding names to quotes has added a great blessing."

"Did you know that Jesus was a WOW Ambassador?"

"This week in College Outreach I had the opportunity to work closely with another person. The nature of our work caused us to make many decisions together concerning God's people. Two minds and two bodies, both very different, were believing and walking together. What we had in common, though, was most important of all--our hearts. I tasted a little more knowledge of how the body of Christ works--the one body--the mystery. It's in everything we do; it's us!"

"Going over Dr. Wierwille's teaching of Ephesians 2:14-22, on the habitation of God, the thing that really hit me was the importance of speaking in tongues in our lives. It just blew my mind--how much this means to God. It almost made me cry, to think that He waited from before the foundations of the world for His habitation to be in us. And now we can show our appreciation of this simply by speaking in tongues! It's incredible to me."

THANKFUL

Why not be thankful
And rejoice in the Lord
We have everything we need
And even more and more.

Why not do our best
The Lord is at hand
Give Him your all
And take a stand.

Remember to S. I. T. much
Because it melts the Father's heart
And love one another
As He did from the start.

We've got the Word
To help us to stand
Let's renew our minds
While the time is at hand!

Guarding the Mystery

"It is so easy to guard the mystery because the spirit of Christ in us can be put into operation no matter what the environmental conditions are. When it's five below, that spirit won't get brittle and crack. Just because we have the sniffles doesn't mean the spirit has a temperature. And even when we're weary physically or mentally, the spirit within us is still alert and ready to go. God has made it so easy for us to guard the mystery."

--- Gloria Lora ---

"Learning is an exciting adventure, therefore, if my life is not exciting, then I am not learning."

--Terry Bader--

"My goal is to speak in tongues for each person I pass and to make a positive mental confession about them. This prayer and mental confession will not only guard the mystery and help solidify the one body, but it will melt God's heart. If speaking in tongues will melt God's heart, think what it will do for our hearts."

--- Foster Smith ---

"All through the ages God did His best to make Himself known to His people according to their believing. He desired a dwelling place where He could have absolute worship."

--Dr. Wierwille--

"In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit."
Ephesians 2:21, 22
