

For he hath made him to be sin for us....we might be made the righteousness of God in him. II Corinthians 5:21:

Heartbeat Bulletin
Volume II No. 5 Emporia 10-22-76

"With righteousness, everything lost in the fall has been restored to us, plus. Righteousness restores spiritual initiative, confidence, assurance, fearlessness, and freedom from condemnation. When righteousness is restored, there is peace.

"Whenever and wherever a man is afraid of God, he will always be afraid of himself. When you see a man afraid of himself, there he is afraid of God. Our ministry is one of alleviating fear. Jesus Christ understood righteousness. 1) He believed in God as his Father. 2) That made it possible for him to believe in himself. 3) He could then believe in the mission he had here on earth."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

WORD at WORK

"For all of us working on the grounds: My Dad, who is in construction, always told me, 'When you lift, lift with your legs, not your back!'"

Learn

"I'm learning attention to detail. I've planted before, but never with this much concern. Here we're learning to take care of every possibility so that those trees will live." Bill De Nenno

"There is so much more than just planting the tree. You've got to establish it in the ground, and ensure its growth--like getting someone born again and then teaching him the Word so that he can stand."
Robert Hayden

"You know, George Jess always believes he can plant the next tree even better. You can just never stop learning." David Walker

"I'm learning how sturdy life is. Those trees can stand a lot. It's like the statement about the only stability being in growth." Phyll Herrington

"Working with the Seventh Corps and seeing their willingness to help and follow directions has made the work so much easier." Steve Strick

"If you're ever going to move with the greatness of the power of God in your life, you'll have to do two things: Speak in tongues much, and read and study the Word." Intermediate Class

"I've received the answers to questions I've had for years, and they're not the kind of answers that inspire more questions."

John Seiffer

"I've gained a much more concrete reason for why to speak in tongues." Richard Holt

"I'm learning how to think about what I've got."

Heidi Weiss

"I have been seeing that it just doesn't work to try to squeeze the Word; you simply have to accept what it says." Walt Luke Leadership in Thought....

"'Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith...' In I Timothy 4:1, the word depart means 'depart into nothingness.'"

from the Timothy class

"I never saw so many verses saying that the Word is faithful." Kim Davies

"The heart of Paul and Timothy and the heart of leadership have come alive." Tricia Phillips

"I realize how vital my life is to God as one of His leaders." Brenda Rhodes

"I've been falling in love with myself because of what God put inside of me." Becki Belcher

"I had never seen marriage before in the light of the mystery, but that's the analogy God uses." Emily Taggart

- SYSTEMATIC-STUDY -

Four steps to Systematic Study:

1. Preparation
2. Getting acquainted with the material
3. Reading and study
4. Wrap-up and review

Tips to Success at Studying

*Enjoy Yourself. Studying can be as much fun as eating. Jeremiah 15:16

*Your best preparation is to get quiet, think through your goals and speak in tongues.

*Develop skill in setting goals as you read.

*Look for threads--recurrent themes, words and ideas--in the material you're studying.

*Aim to teach whatever you learn from or about God's Word. Tom Knupp, Fifth Corps

Correction of a quote from Volume 2, no. 3:

"Toughness is like leather; it's flexible. Hardness is like a rock; it's brittle and breaks. We need to be tough." Franklin Smith, Fifth Corps
