"The ticket for 'the believers' learning program' is paid; all that's needed is your effort."

Rev. Lonnell Johnson

"When you teach, it's not to fill up time. It's got to be God in Christ at work within you...It doesn't have to be new...It has to be what they need...God's people are God's property...You've got to be fully persuaded that God has called us to this work and that we are His workers. People need to lift up their eyes and walk. We have got to be excited every day."

Rev. John Townsend

"The Word has to be you and you the Word; that's what we're getting at."

Rev. Nancy Duncan

"Literally everything we do is to magnify and move the simplicity, yet the greatness, of God's promise. That's why I know that if we can't get excited about the little things that we do, then we don't really understand the mystery."
Catherine Johnston, Seventh Corps

"Our true freedom is to serve one another in love. We can so minister to one another's needs here in the Corps that we are rooted and grounded as one in love... We are not rooted and grounded simply because we live together, but because we will the Word of God to live in our hearts and then diligently seek to bless and edify one another...It is this loving in deed and in truth that will bring about our confidence toward God and therefore toward each other."

Steve Burch, Seventh Corps

"Renewing our minds can be so much fun when we stop being afraid of it...Discipline is the key to freedom because it unlocks the doors that keeps one from becoming the kind of person he or she truly wants to be... When you feel sort of 'blah' during the day, that is the best time to put everything you've got into that day. You'll finish the day with flying colors."

Christine Alleva, Seventh Corps

WE JUST Finished "Dealing with the Adversary", and "Christian Etiquette", so I ran out and bought some "on Guard" Deodorant!

"Everyone who got where he is had to begin where he was."

Robert J. Evans

"Democracy is not the best, as the majority supposes. It's the next step to anarchy, then to tyranny. The best type of government is that described in the Constitution. It is called a republic...The Bill of Rights is only a piece of paper until you give it recognition and reality."

Tom Jenkinson, Sixth Corps

Thought

"We sometimes jump with joy
And shout 'Far out!'
But because of God's grace and love
It is bigger and our hearts burst out,
'Far above!'
All principality,
And power
And might
And dominion,
And every name that is named,
Not only in this world,
But also in that which is to come."

Carol Holden, Seventh Corps

"Obstacles are the things we see when we take our eyes off the goal...We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give." Anonymous

"The Way Corps might not teach you how to make a living, but it will definitely teach you how to make a life worth living." Dan Moran, Seventh Corps

"At rest within God's endless love
My heart has reached its home.
Ever looking at that above
Never more shall I roam
His peace descended upon a dove
Now I am His alone.

I walk with Him and talk with Him
Each and every day
My eyes no longer will grow dim
For He shall light the way
Today shall never come again
So now I will not sway
I shall continue in His love
For He has brought me home."

Michele Deppe, Seventh Corps

"How 'bout a retemory for dental care?!"

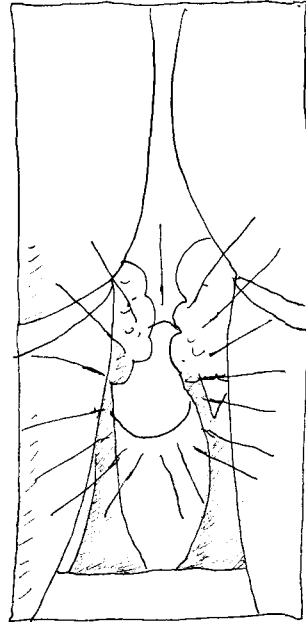

Amos 4:6

'And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.'

So much for my humor." Glenn Mittler, Seventh Corps

"Father
Come to my aid
See my need and
Fill it with Your love
Cover the man I am
See me and then
Show me how to do the same
Father
I need you now
And I'm lost without You
Why don't people believe
I just want a friend
Someone I can Boast of You to
And to see grow
O Father of light
Lighten this burden
That weighs so heavy
On my soul
Let me see You now
And feel You how
You love me
Perfectly."

Steve Hartlaub, Seventh Corps

"Born again in an instant of grace
A lively wellspring floods my soul
Clear waters bubble and fill me whole
With peaceful seas and a resting place
Now it is in me to overflow
And from my lips pour streams of praise
Thanksgiving deepens my heart's shallow bays
As high tides of joy within me grow
A geyser effervescent gushes forth thanks
To melt the heart of my Father God
God the great fountain my waves applaud
And mighty rivers flow over my banks
My rivers are living, my waters are swift Thanks be to God for His wonderful gift."

Ken La Prade, Seventh Corps
