"INNOCECE"

"I'M GOING TO DO ALL RIGHT IN PUBLIC SPEAKING; I DON'T KNOW ANY 254 WORDS."

"The need was so great that I handled it the only way I know how--with complete honesty."

"We're always progressing toward something, either degradation or 'believers standing together'. Whatever we choose will end up in either life or death."

"It's a new word, 'commititeer', a combination of a volunteer who is also committed."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille
Way Corps luncheon, Wichita

"I heard a mountain climber describe his sport as 'complete agressiveness coupled with finesse'."

Rev. Craig Martindale on the Way Corps

"Word at Work..."

"Our warfare is not with flesh and blood, but against spiritual wickedness in the heavenly places, against the world rulers of this darkness. Let us then stand firm and heed the trumpet of the Lord. Satan is fighting, not against us, but against Christ in us. We fight the battles of the Lord. Be strong, therefore. If God is for us, who can be against us?"

Martin Luther, October 1521

"One of the rarest things that a man does is his best.

"All justice must be swift (I didn't say hurried) and tempered with love."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

WITHIN THE DEPTHS OF GOD

"I will hide in the midst of Your heart
Sunk into its depths
Cushioned by the softness and warmth of Your love
Submerged where nothing can hurt me
Where my life is Your responsibility
And my thoughts are free of need.

In Your heart is such peace
Not a doubt; from strife--total release
Looking through its windows, my vision is so clear
My perspective of life is complete
My understanding is alive; it's thrilling
The oneness with You there is home.

When my concentration is absorbed with Your Word
My believing soars to reach You
And You teach me truth and comfort me
Strengthened, my commitment builds
Your hand takes mine to lead me
Oh, the cherished moments in the midst of Your heart!"

Debbie Schneider, Seventh Corps

"Now I know that by systematically applying what I've learned here so far, I'm able to increase my learning capacity, my reading speed, and my ability to think clearly. I've had a chance to prove all this in Tom Jenkinson's class, 'Early Church History.' While I was studying the 'awesome' subject of mathematics, I managed to avoid almost all history and literature classes. Now, in this class, I've been able to organize almost all of it on my note pad and am working on memorizing it as I go during class. It's just wonderful to learn how to manifest the sound mind God has given us. It's fantastic, merely learning what a sound mind is!"
Mary Wehmanen, Seventh Corps

"We don't hafta 'got to do' nothing!"

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

GOD, THE MASTERBUILDER

"Walls of love upon an eternal foundation
Enclosed in an infinite ceiling of truth,
The Masterbuilder's residence stands for grace.

The showcase of grace and Christian love
Where each makes a stand for right
So that God's radiant Son can break a new day
Ablaze in His glistening light.

Our lives are the substance with which He's formed
A place for Himself to dwell
Through us now God's excellence shown,
His Word must prevail.

A surging of freshness, of newness and peace
Flow from the mystery,
In which God's greatest prize was fashioned,
Out of death and agony

To cause us to stand, to teach us
That His Word cannot be bound,
Though by one man death did enter
By Christ now grace abounds.

The Father of life is not confined to temples made of stone
But makes His abode in souls of men
That He might have a living home.

What rapturous joy to be at home with God
And our Lord Christ,
To invite wanderers in
and rejoin them
to the very source of life."

Bill Mac Harg, Seventh Corps

"Habit both shows and makes the man, for it is at once historic and prophetic, the mirror of the man as he is and the mould of the man as he is to be."
