"The reason Paul could keep going was his unalterable conviction and belief in the truth of what God was doing--the hope." Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"Praise is giving. The real wholeness is praising God. God is to be surrounded with praise." Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"Until you take the spiritual responsibility for something, you haven't taken the responsibility for anything." John Race (pilot of The Way plane)

"Whatever you can do, or dream you can, begin it. Boldness has genius, power and magic in it." Goethe

... leadership in thought ...

"Everything we do, we've got to make it God-centered, whether it's brushing our teeth or holding forth the Word... Let us be heavenly-minded in everything we do."

Debby Jean Folk, Fifth Corps

"If leadership does not take a stand on the Word, people will not get the deliverance that God wants them to have.

"When a man with a gift ministry cops out, it does not just impede him, but all the people he could have reached will not get deliverance. It is like a ship without a captain.

"You don't stay your mind on people's needs, but on their deliverance. As leaders, we are constantly building positives."

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"Courage is the mastery of fear--not the absence of fear."

Mark Twain

"We do not live to read the Word. We read the Word to live."

Karen Miller, Seventh Corps

"Love comes from a pure, honest heart that is fertile--ready to receive and respond in believing action."

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

...word at work...

"Until one is committed there is hesitancy, the chance to draw back, always ineffectiveness. Concerning all acts of initiative (and creation), there is one elementary truth, the ignorance of which kills countless ideas and splendid plans: that the moment one definitely commits oneself, then Providence moves too. All sorts of things occur to help one that would never otherwise have occurred. A whole stream of events issues from the decision, raising in one's favor all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way."

W. H. Murray

"In most other religious circles, they do simply the acceptable. We are not interested in the acceptable; we are interested in doing the best."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

BY THESE WORDS

"Study how to say things. Study how to use words that will change circumstances around you. You don't have to put on; you don't have to exaggerate. All you have to do is to be natural, but make that 'natural' worth listening to... Make a study, an analytical study of words, then see how much you can put into a single sentence... I don't mean how many words, but how much you can put into the words so that when men and women listen to your words, they will be thrilled by them. Put yourself, your personality, into your words. Make your words ring...It is what you put into your words that makes them live in the hearts of those who listen... Trust in the words of your own lips...Fill them with loving truth...Love always seeks the right word to convey its message without loss in transit."

"The only way to get to the heart of a man is from the inside. This is done by the Word and love. If you try to go through from the outside, he'll lock it."

"Love always seeks the right words to put thoughts across without misrepresentation." HQ Staff Newsletter

"There is a tremendous spirit of excitement in our twigs around the country--lots of expectation...."
Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"God
Takes me in His arms
Fills me with His charms
Makes me know how really
Whole
I am.
He loves me with His all
I'm standing by His call
And I'm near to the heart
Of my Father, my God
My tender Creator."

Anne Robinson, Seventh Corps

"Thank you so much for all the beautiful cards and letters. I feel like I have a part of your heart in each and every one."

Cheryl Wade, Seventh Corps

"Anybody throwing dirt automatically loses ground."

Francis Winkowitsch
