

Heartbeat Bulletin

Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. I Thess 4:1

Volume 3 #21, 3-8-77

"If you're going to lead people, you'll have to know how to inspire them." Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"The Way is not deceitful in handling the Word. We may not know everything, but we're not deceitful." Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"When you see yourself as a member of the body, you'll stop criticizing others." Rev. Del Duncan

"Our best friend is someone who loves us with the love of God in the renewed mind in manifestation. Besides God and the Lord Jesus Christ, I must become my own best friend." Mark Overbey, Seventh Corps

"A gun is not evil. The person who uses it determines whether or not it's evil. When you pick up a gun, you are responsible." Chris Geer, Seventh Corps

Word at Work

"It takes 'silver-platter believing' to move the Word."
Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"Synchronized life is day-by-day living--confession of your mouth and heart with the Word. Every time we make a negative confession, we call God a liar."
Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"The height of stupidity is not to obey the Word."
Rev. Del Duncan

"The body of almost every organization has four kinds of bones:

THE WISHBONES: Who spend all their time wishing that somebody would do the work.

THE JAWBONES: Who do all the talking, but little else.

THE KNUCKLEBONES: Who knock everything that anybody else tries to do.

THE BACKBONES: Who get under the load and do all the work.

Michele Christensen, Family III

"You have to be convinced before you'll be convincing."
Rev. Nancy Duncan

"Discouragement comes from the Adversary. Just kick him in the teeth!"
Rev. L. Craig Martindale

healing and deliverance

"Ointment of love settles on the soul
A balm of medicinal care
For hearts in need of heaven's healing
Encouraging them to forbear.

Though wearied by raging battles within
The spirit versus the flesh;
Though wounded by worldly adversity
When invisible forces clash.

There remains, nonetheless, a restfulness
For those who've decided to stand;
God's healing wholeness comes to us
From the touch of His comforting hand."

Dennis Mc Gee, Seventh Corps

"Comfort is guidance--it's answers; holy spirit is called 'the comforter.' It teaches and brings things to our remembrance. That's comfort. We can expect comfort from God, not condemnation." Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"God doesn't remember what we do wrong, so why should we?"
Marcia Faulk, Fifth Corps

"You have to be able to walk and not frustrate the grace of God."
Chris Leggett, Sixth Corps

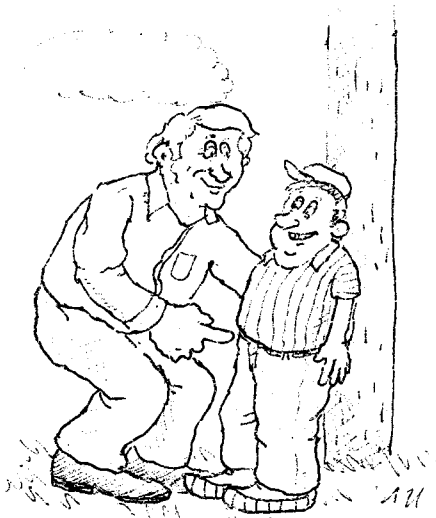

"Being in the Way Corps gives us the biggest opportunity we will ever have in our lives to prove to God and ourselves how much we love Him. It will be my honest love for the Father that causes me to get all my aerobics points and above. It will be the same love that causes me to burn those retemories into my mind and heart by believing and with the help of our friend IRA (impression, repetition and association). It will be my great hunger and anticipation for God's presence that causes me to spring out of bed before 5:30 so I can fellowship by way of prayer and study with my Father, first and foremost. It will be my simple, excited love for the Father that causes me to mold the five Way Corps objectives into my heart so that I may faithfully carry out the Way Corps program daily, one day at a time. It will be God's love for me, by way of His spirit in manifestation in my own heart and in the hearts of the whole family here, that forgives me and understands me when I make a mistake. This is God's healing and deliverance."

Becki Belcher, Fifth Corps

"We are here to:

- Investigate in order to
- Operate in order to
- Communicate in order to
- Motivate in order to
- Infiltrate in order to
- Permeate in order to
- Saturate in order to
- Dominate

THE WORD IN CULTURE!"

Rev. L. Craig Martindale
