

BREAKING THROUGH

The wee buds break, and from within unfolds a tiny leaf,
Still frail, still pale, but standing amid the April snow.
It grows, and as each leaf grows richer, larger— soon
A full dress appears upon the branches,
With no more space between each leaf, but a full mass,
Strong and green.

So are we, each one breaking through his own shell,
Building his life. We all join hands: the family closely knit,
And as our lives unfold, we, too, are a beauty to be seen.
Our hearts become one, and like the miracle of the Budding tree in spring, God has presented us His masterpiece,
To color the world.

HEARTBEAT BULLETIN

VOL. 3, NO. 26

APRIL 12, 1977

"Everything is available because of the resurrection. Without understanding of deliverance from the wrath to come, there's no point in understanding anything."

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"Without being able to see Christ's example as our standard (a man walking by believing and trust in God), we have no standard, and all we can do is compare ourselves with one another."

Rev. John Lynn

"Truth has to become the most satisfying thing to your soul."

Tom Reahard

"Grace is an experience indescribably real. It is truly the only reality. It is so real that most people will not even come near to it."

Donnie Fugit, Fifth Corps

"Mere possession of the Bible is a guarantee of nothing. It must be understood in the light of that spirit which is alive in every word."

Rev. Gary Curtis

leadership in thought

"Inspiration will always precede believing by the teaching of the Word.

"If you are going to lead, the first thing you must do is to inspire."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"You are today where your thoughts have brought you; you will be tomorrow where your thoughts take you. You will realize the vision--not the idle wish--of your heart... for you will always gravitate toward that which you, secretly, most love. Whatever your present environment may be, you will fall, remain, or rise with your thoughts, your vision, your ideal. You will become as small as your controlling desire; as great as your dominant aspiration."

Anonymous

"I am electrified at what God is allowing me to know and understand today because of what it will enable me to do tomorrow."
Tom Reahard

"If we are able to discipline our minds to speak in tongues more and more, then we shall be able to do whatever God requires."
Rev. Gary Curtis

"Life is no harder than speaking in tongues and reading the Word."
Mark Tomparry, Seventh Corps

"Praise or worship and obedience make up a heart of love for God."
Donnie Fugit, Fifth Corps

Word At Work

"I'd like to sing a song for you,
A song that really is true.
A song of peace--a song of light
A song of God's Word shining bright."

Jessica Woolley
(age 6--Family Corps II)

"After being in the Corps, living in this world is like being the only one going the right way down a one-way street."
