

"Feelings come--feelings go
Feelings, senses man deceiving
My life and walk is the Word of God
Nothing else worth believing

Should all mankind the world belittle and condemn
I'll trust in God's unchanging Word until my very end

Should man my soul and body sever
I'll by God's mercy and grace continue to trust my
Savior
For God's Word
Liveth and abideth forever."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille
Opening of 34th Anniversary

"PFAL '77 will bring together the greatest leadership in the world today in a more intimate way than the Rock of Ages. I doubt if we'll know how great it is even when it's all over."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille, Nov. '76

"We're not going to play around. That doesn't mean it's going to be negative and critical. It means it's going to be a positive push. We want to show you what kind of capabilities you have, 'way beyond your renewed-mind dreams."

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"Learn to control your mind on healing. You don't want to be thinking, 'How can I get healed?' You want to be concerned with not getting sick to begin with. The most important key is remembering that the spiritual world supersedes the natural."

Rev. Randy Anderson

"It will be my honest love for the Father that causes me to get all my aerobic points and above. It will be the same love that causes me to burn those retemories into my mind and heart by believing and with the help of my friend IRA BRAMMS. It will be my great hunger and anticipation for God's presence that causes me to spring out of bed before 5:30 so that I can fellowship by way of prayer and study with my Father, first and foremost. It will be my simple, excited love for the Father that causes me to mold the five Way Corps objectives into my heart so that I may faithfully carry out The Way Corps program daily, one day at a time."

Becky Belcher, Fifth Corps

"Lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are green all ready to harvest."

Fifth Corps on their way to Texas

"The Corps: "I don't know for sure, but I think that they major in God, physical education and landscaping."

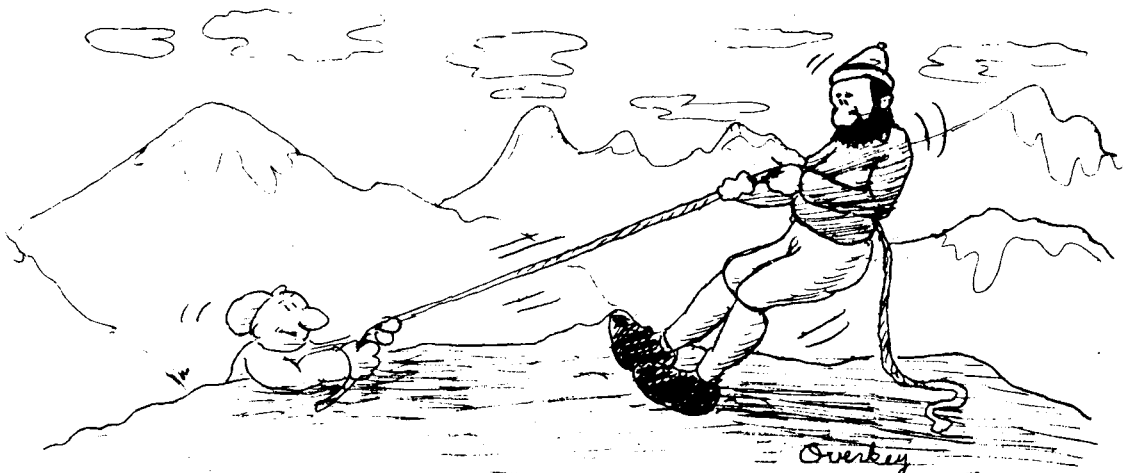

An Emporia Resident

"You know, George Jess always believes he can plant the next tree even better. You can just never stop learning."

David Walker, Seventh Corps

"I'm learning how sturdy life is. Those trees can stand a lot. It's like the statement about the only stability being in growth."

Phyll Herrington, Seventh Corps

"We want to train people with physical stamina to carry on spiritual work with mental flexibility."

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"My freedom I use to become professional in my field. My confidence in God gives me the right of way."

Ray O'Quinn

"The Way Corps might not teach you how to make a living, but it will definitely teach you how to make a life worth living."

Dan Moran, Seventh Corps

"...The love of God covers a multitude of drips!"

Ann Morningstar, Sixth Corps

"Anyone who has accuracy is a candidate for responsibility."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"Until you take the spiritual responsibility for something, you haven't taken the responsibility for anything."

John Race

"I firmly believe that any man's finest hour--his greatest fulfillment to all he holds dear--is that moment when he has worked his heart out in a good cause and lies exhausted on the field of battle--victorious."

Vince Lombardi

"Push yourself; build your own breaking points. Throw yourself into situations you never dared try before. You'll find you can do a lot more than you thought you could."

Rev. Walter Cummins

"...But that is the greatness of our stand as believers and it happens on Bless Patrol, while setting up or ushering for meetings, in Twigs, at work, in our country and in the world. Any son of God believing even one verse is a set back for the Adversary in ways we don't even know."

John Seiffer, Fifth Corps

"If you're going to lead people, you'll have to know how to inspire them."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"Our example is a stronger inducement for others to serve God than any arguments about God's Word that anyone can propose."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"It's interesting that people can always do things at the point of a gun, but can't do them with the freedom of the love of God. I think the Corps is what it's going to take to walk with the freedom of the love of God."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"The Corps is building self-starters. You have to have that natural leadership ability to motivate yourself. Part of natural leadership ability is that when I learn something--I respond quickly!"

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"We're not on a sprint or on a middle-distance run. We're involved in a long-distance run. How do we win the race?--with patience, of course."

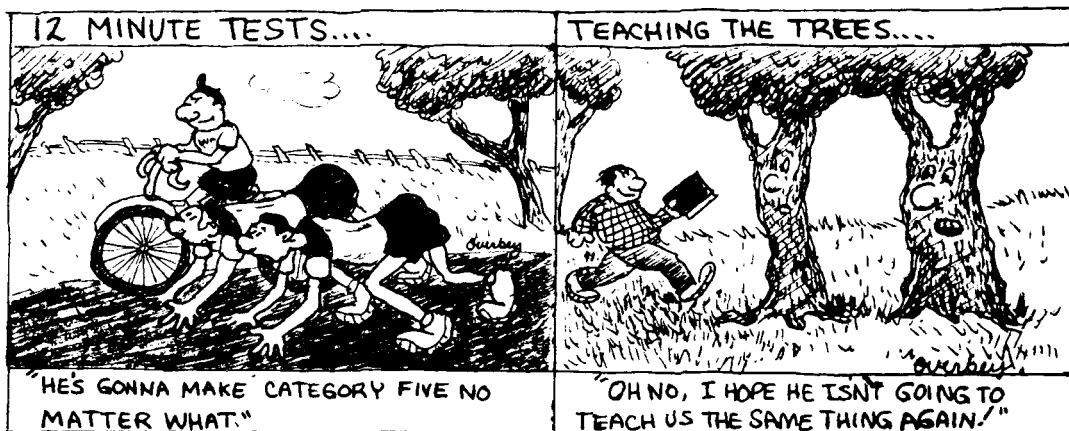

Rev. Randy Anderson

"This year, I'm going to get the Corps to do the 12-minute test in 4 minutes to save time!"

Rev. Del Duncan

"The Way College of Emporia is truly unique. It's the only school I know of where you can get college credit for running in the dark and walking in the light."

Rev. Bo Reahard

"This walk of believing is as varied as the snowflakes."
Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"See the situation whole, not as it may appear at the moment."

Jo Belt

"If the Corps could understand that each place they are sent is an ordination, they would never be attacked by the Adversary to leave the field..."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"How you say what you say makes all the difference in who listens to you."

Charles Henry Rix, Fifth Corps

"Like the rock climber who is halfway up a cliff, I have committed myself to the moves that are ahead of me."

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"The reason Paul could keep going was his unalterable conviction and belief in the truth of what God was doing--the hope."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"The only way to deal with God is in terms of commitments. When you break them, it's just you trying to play God."

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"Here I stand; I cannot do otherwise; so help me God."

Martin Luther

"I love the Corps because it challenges people. Challenge is no more than an invitation to succeed."

Rev. Randy Feese

"Hesitation plays around the hedges of the conscious mind. Believing enjoys the knowing quietness of your heart."

Franklin Smith, Fifth Corps

"People get delivered here more than the mail does."

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"To get out of a rut, get off your butt."

Frank Piluso, Seventh Corps

"The Constitution does not say that we will be provided for. It says it will provide for our protection."

Milford Bowen

"A gun is not evil. The person who uses it determines whether or not it's evil. When you pick up a gun, you are responsible."

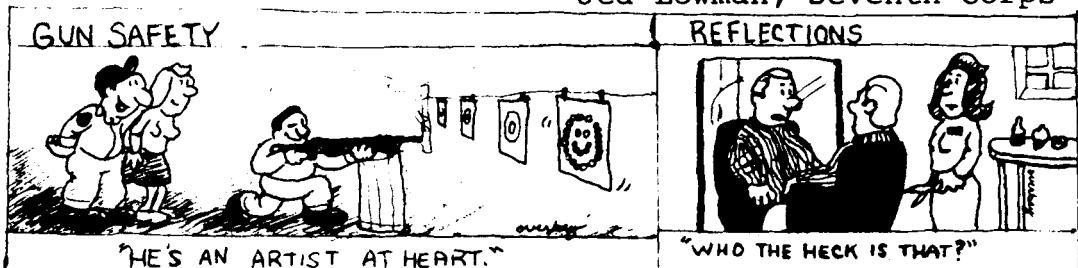

Chris Geer, Seventh Corps

"Every program we have here is for overcoming fear."

Randy Peugh, Seventh Corps

"We have no right to be afraid. We've got the guts of God!"

Jed Lowman, Seventh Corps

"We are like diamonds. We take the pure light of God's Word and refract it."

Franklin Smith, Fifth Corps

"The world wants everyone to look alike. There's no individuality because they are always trying to identify with someone or something. We are the only true individuals because we identify with Christ. That sets us free to be ourselves."

Sheryl Haggard

"God looks on the heart--so why cover it up? You might as well just share it and get it over with."

Rev. Nancy Duncan

"If I can stand righteous before the Perfect One, God, without feeling inferior, I can surely stand like that before my brothers and sisters in the Corps!"

Katie Edwards, Seventh Corps

"You ought to be believing God for a big heart."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"Our fight is between mental assent and true believing. Every true renewing of the mind results in the holding forth of the Word. Up to that point, it's still only mental assent."

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"God limits Himself in this administration to you and me to get the Word out...He limits Himself to our believing. How long it takes the Word to get out across the world, and the body of Christ to be complete, depends on our believing."
