On the shore of the Sea of Galilee at the foot of the natural amphitheater, where Jesus taught the multitudes as he pushed off shore in a boat. It was here that Dr. Wierwille read Luke 5 as it was originally given by Jesus. The acoustics are so perfect that Mrs. Wierwille and friends 1/5 mile away, and 1/2 mile way up the hillside could plainly hear each word.

In Nablus, Jordan, about 40 miles north of Jerusalem is the only Samaritan Synagogue and colony of Samaritans, dating back to Bible times. There are only about 350 Samaritans remaining. We arrived in this colony just a few minutes before their Sabbath service. We were invited to witness one of the most unique services. After an hour and a half the head priest, who claims direct descent from Aaron, read for us the oldest Hebrew scroll in existence which is claimed to date back to 4 generations after Aaron, or approximately 3600 years old. It is 25 liters in length. It is kept in a Persian case, and the three knobs projecting above the case represent the tribes of Levi, Ephraim and Manasseh.

The Way Newsletter April 1956

Dear Friends of The Way:

We greet you in the name of our Resurrected Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. What a privilege we have, being able to hear openly about this wonderful Name. Vast multitudes of people all over the world need and desire the truth regarding Jesus and it is up to us to share everywhere the Abundant Life in Jesus Christ.

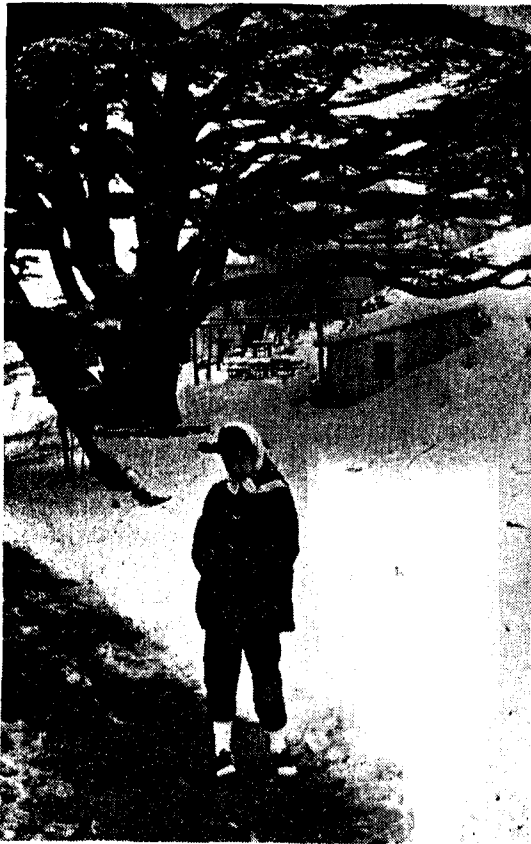

As we were sailing along the Isle of Crete, I was doing some thinking and writing in connection with the future expansion of The Way ministry. The thought again presented itself that the church as we know and see it today must again be revitalized by the Spirit of Christ.

In every land where we have traveled with the light of The Way ministry, which God by His grace has given us, we have endeavored to show people the greatness of the rights and privileges of every believer in Jesus Christ. We have found nothing but a most welcome reception in every land, and have been asked to return quickly or to send some one else who could teach and share more with them. Little can you realize the doors that have and are open for the Abundant Life, and the responsibility that rests upon us, as Christians, to meet these obligations. God has called us that we might meet the great challenge of the world in this day.

Our tour through the Holy Land has been a blessing to all of us. We had no meetings planned as our tour here was not geared for teaching primarily, but for us to personally orient ourselves with the Holy Land so we might be more efficient in knowledge and better qualified to teach others. However, several meetings were arranged for us and we had many wonderful personal contacts who we could witness to and we thank God always for the privilege of witnessing for Him. We believe that His sheep will hear and the goats only will not listen.

I know that to The Way ministry will be drawn, by the Spirit of Christ, souls who are great in love and good works; those, who like to be associated with a cause that has meaning and purpose beyond the self. When we return to the United States we will continue to work even more enthusiastically and effectively than we have ever done before, because we realize not only the greatness of The Way ministry but also the urgency of getting the truth out to all who will hear. I trust that you may be one to join hands with The Way ministry to carry on this work.

When this letter reaches you we will be on our way to New York. We will be back in Van Wert by the 27th of April and I will be preaching in the pulpit to the congregation we love with all our hearts on Sunday the 29th. We are very much looking forward to seeing our son, John Paul, who was just two months old when we started on this

The Garden Tomb, Jerusalem, where Jesus was buried

World Missionary Teaching and Training Tour, and who has been in the good care of Mrs. Wierwille's sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Fischbach of St. Marys, Ohio. For all of us it will be like beginning anew as far as physical needs are concerned, as we sold our car and furniture when we left.

We have a wonderful branch of The Way in England, where two or three groups are meeting weekly and where great believing faith is being manifested. We spent a number of days with them, greeting our old friends of last September and making new ones. To revisit this branch was encouraging to them as well as to us, and we could add to them more and more light and truth of the Word.

Join with me in prayer daily for the branches of The Way over the world and pray for God's guidance on our friends everywhere. We are one in Christ, united in love to do a vast work which will bring forth fruit abundantly.

If we can be of any spiritual help to you please do not hesitate to contact us at Van Wert, Ohio. We are ready to help you and people all over the world. Remember that your rights and privileges in Christ Jesus are great. God has no favorites. He loves one as much as the other. Act on His Word and it will come to pass for Christ is the surety, the guarantee of the new will and covenant which is established with His sons, those who are born again of His Spirit.

Sincerely in His Service,

V. P. Wierwille
