"You can burn yourself up in a day's time but you cannot burn yourself out by being a doulos for the Lord Jesus Christ. As we walk in the love of God, our strength is replenished daily."

Rev. Gerald Wrenn

TEXAS

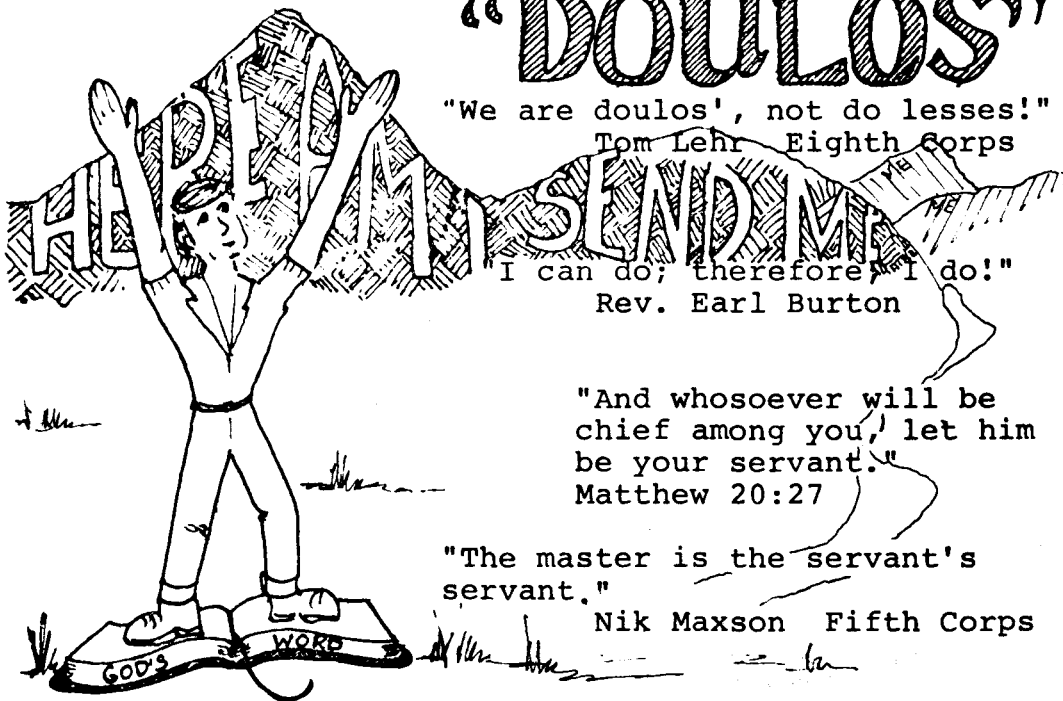

"If you are sent to deliver a message accurately, you have to be a doulos."

Nik Maxson Fifth Corps

"The greatest commitment ever made was God to His Word."

Rev. Gerald Wrenn

"Each person in the Way Corps has to have the commitment to stand. The commitment of the Lord Jesus Christ. If we look at the Christ in ourselves and in one another, we'll rise up to our commitment. Then we'll see Ephesians 4:6."

Beth Sportel Sixth Corps

COMMITMENT

"We always have 'time' to do the Word. That's why we are alive."

Connie Crow Fifth Corps

Sue Wrenn

"Today when you talk about 'charity' it's a basket case--that's not this word at all. . . There are two words you must understand, one is agapao, the other is phileo."

Love

"When we get the meat of this thirteenth chapter of Corinthians sandwiched in our lives, like God has sandwiched it so beautifully in His Word, the church will manifest the greatness of what this Word is all about."

SERVE

"I just love to ~~love~~ serve the Word around peoples' hearts."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"If you want a good crop, you've got to sow the right seed, and enough of it."

Uncle Harry

"On the surface we see the promises of God, but as we dig deeply into it, all things that pertain unto life and godliness are revealed to us. The treasures of the Word must be dug out."

Rev. Gerald Wrenn

"Selfish people live on an island, a desolate place where failures live. A person who is concerned about others lives in God's throne room."

Rev. Vince Finnegan

"We continually need to watch for one another's hearts. Magnify God's heart in critical situations. The Word of God is our conscience. Our individual action must be collectively in light of the one body."

Rev. Gerald Wrenn

"We are God's mouthpieces. We are His spokesmen. That is why, 'The Way Corps . . . IT IS WRITTEN' is so significant. What we speak for God must be God's Word."

THE MARK OF ONE LIFE
(A Tribute to Uncle Harry)

Uncle Harry, a man of God,
Has come and made his blow.
An imprint sure, steadfast and faithful
For all with loving charity who him have come to know.
His life has molded history
As the potter molds his clay,
Yet the blow he's impressed in the book of life
Will again live as in his day.
For the mark will not have just been made but reached
As he pressed toward it day
by day
And the life that could have drifted
Has left its mark to stay
For his life was steeled toward the goal
Though ended his march might be
Thousands of others will march in his stead
That the blow of God's Word will sound out eternally.

Rev. Gerald Wrenn

"Only a few names make the history books, but many people make history."
