VOL. 4 NO. 2 / OCT. 77 / EMPORIA

35th Anniversary

"And that's when he spoke to me audibly, just like I'm talking to you now. He said he would teach me the Word as it had not been known since the first century if I would teach it to others."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille
The Way Living in Love

Psalm 27:11a
"Teach me Thy way, oh Lord,
and lead me in a plain path..."

♥ Leader's Heart

"We are in the Corps to learn the mystery."

Dr. V. P. Wierwille

"The closer you get to the mystery, the closer you get to dominion and authority."

Rev. Gerald Wrenn

"Jesus Christ came to declare God, he came to lay him bare for all eternity, and he did it with words."

Rev. Gerald Wrenn

"A man never really knows himself until he has seen himself in the Word."

"When you walk in the Word, it's going to make it easier for people to believe there is a God, because those words are going to live in you, and you are going to live in that Word. When you abide in that relationship with the heavenly Father, there is power."

Rev. Gerald Wrenn

"I will endeavor to keep the Word, the heart and love this Ministry is founded upon."

Howard Allen

"If there is any one thing our country needs in this day and time, it is the Word."

Put it all on the line, no compromising."

Dr. V. P. Wierwille

Corps-puscles

"The Way Corps is the man of God's heart."

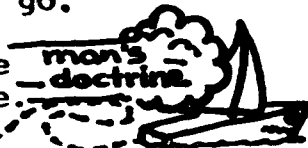

Anonymous

There are three types of Christians:

There are "rowboat Christians" who need to be pushed wherever they go.

There are "sailboat Christians" who are blown about with every wind of doctrine.

And then there is The Way Corps. We're "steamboat Christians." We decide where we want to go, and then get there in spite of wind or weather.

Randall Micek, Sixth Corps

"Love without action is lip service."

Roy Heflin, Eighth Corps

"You can hold forth the word to yourself."

Melanie Price, Sixth Corps

"We have to come to the place in our lives that we know ourselves, to know ourselves well enough to stand before God and say, "God, you know me, and I stand before you naked. We'll start from here, just as I am, and build a God-centered life."

Rev. Del Duncan

"Discipline is freedom because your mind will keep telling you to be afraid, and discipline will keep you on the Word."

Rev. Nancy Duncan

"As elder brothers and sisters it is your responsibility to bring up the younger Corps by 'example'."

Rev. Ken Brown

"That's what we're endeavoring to do in The Way Corps--to build the correct habit patterns to the point that the spirit of God freely moves in us."

Jeff Tyler, Sixth Corps

"The love of life begins with loving the Lord of Life."

Christopher Brooks, Sixth Corps

"I would rather see someone become themselves and develop their own personality with God than to mimic and copy others in The Ministry."

Rev. Del Duncan

"What we are celebrating tonight is 35 years of spiritual liberty."

Rev. Gerald Wrenn
