VOLUME 3 No. 20 3-1-77

"If we could shine as lights for God
Our Father up above
Just think of all the people who
Would come to know His love.

We'd tell them of His mighty Word
And what they have in store
Eternal life and happiness
And then there's so much more.

Well, we can shine as lights
And tell the old, old story
There's nothing that can stop us
We've Christ in us, the hope of glory."

Mrs. Betty Dubiel

Mother of Doug Cosmos, Seventh Corps

"People need loving the most when they deserve it the least."

Leadership In Thought

"You are the Twig leader of the members of your mind. As a Twig leader, you are spiritually responsible to God for the lives of those in your twig. Gird up the loins of your mind. Lead every thought captive to Christ. A Twig leader must fight for his people. You determine where you want your Twig to go and grow.

Deborah Carroll, Seventh Corps

"Moses knew God face to face. We know Him heart to heart."

Foster Smith, Fifth Corps

"The spontaneous action of true believing is to await God's son from the heavens.

"Sound doctrine will always produce fruitful witnessing. We cannot help but speak what we are, from the very fiber of our being."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"I became a part of this ministry because someone took the time to love me. It is love that draws people to the Word and we have to keep it that way."

Donna Martindale

"Do not limit the avenue by which God will answer prayers. Remember that God's way of manifesting His love are as uncountable as the stars of the firmament."

Glen Clarke

"Walk in obedience to His calling. This is reigning in life. The greatest success story is I Corinthians 13:7.
Rev. Howie Yeremian, Second Corps

"The greatest privilege is to be in the position where you can see God work." Elena Whiteside, Family Corps I

"Jesus Christ is in your life exactly what you think he is.

"The Corps is simply knowing the power of God in your heart and life."
Rev. Del Duncan

"The Word shakes us up and keeps us fluid."
Rev. Ian Murphy

"There's an incredible abundance of revelation available in our administration if you'll just walk--far more than what was given in the Old Testament.

"God will deliver you. God will protect you. It's not yours to know how, but it is yours to believe for. I've learned this by reading the Old Testament. Don't limit God. Don't pin God to anything."

John Schoenheit, Sixth Corps
Old Testament History

Hebrew poetry in the Bible was based upon the figure of speech: Parallelism. Almost all of Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Solomon, Lamentations, Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah and Malachi are poetic. An example of this technique in our administration could be:

We must behold others through Christ's eyes.
We must see them the way God sees them.

Word At Work

"The Way, as a committed, organized, intense and vocal minority, can prevail over an indifferent and unorganized denominational majority."

"Loving giving requires loving reciprocal action."

"A true teacher is one who instructs so thoroughly and effectively that he is replaced by the student."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"When you do God's will, nothing suffers."

"In the Corps, an individual either breaks himself on the principles or he flows with them."

"In the First Century church, house-to-house witnessing was the bread and butter of moving the Word."

Rev. L. Craig Martindale

"All of history has been building toward the 'now.'
We are at the apex of the reformation."

Rev. Ross Tracy
