

"Jesus Christ was the master of any situation... You never read about him having a need... The Word of God is the one thing in the world and the only thing in the world that will meet every individual's need--to his satisfaction."

LEADERSHIP IN THOUGHT

"Let all things be done unto edifying. That is the responsibility of every leader at any gathering."

Rev. Craig Martindale

"'Timothy' is a pastoral epistle for leaders on how to take care of the body of believers."

Rev. Bob Moynihan

"The class on 'Timothy' is like a breath of fresh air to the heart of a leader."

John Coscarelli, Fifth Corps

The primary purpose for the Way International is to teach those who teach.

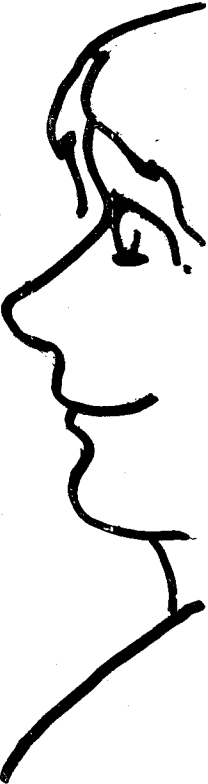

Joe Coulter

The greatest leader we know is the one who saw the future consequences of his actions more important than the conditions surrounding him.

Charles Henry Rix, Fifth Corps

When the Word is at work, then the Word will go over the world.

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

I CAN DO ALL THINGS.

"It's totally astounding to me, as I realize what we, as Sons of God, are able to do, when we get to the point of believing--really believing--that God is our strength and sufficiency. No other people anywhere believe this. We are the future of this country."

Terry Pascoe, Seventh Corps

"Total involvement in the total environment of the Word that lives here - that's what makes this life so great!

Rev. Earl Burton

"I hardly know what the Corps is all about yet; but I do know that, for the first time, I am able to see limitless possibilities for my life. Before, when I thought of accomplishing any thing, it was always future tense in which I imagined a perfect vision of myself doing perfect things. But I got tired of sitting around waiting for it to happen, so here I am."

Katie McCormick, Seventh Corps

"Speaking in tongues with interpretation makes the Word living and real to the individual operating them and also to the whole household of believers in that Twig."

Rev. Earl Burton

"You never know how much you need to learn until you think you almost know it all, and discover in truth you almost know nothing. So it is with the Intermediate Class. Being a spiritual athlete is a lot more than being able to stand, speak in tongues and interpret, boldly, without fear. It's in being trained and disciplined in the 'hows', 'whys' and 'wherefores' of the holy spirit field. This class is really driving the importance of this home for me.

Rich Muegge, Seventh Corps

"Give Us Men!

Men from every rank
Fresh and free and frank
Men of thought and reading
Men of light and leading Men of royal breeding
The nation's welfare speeding
Men of faith and not fiction
Men of lofty aim in action
Men who love God and His Truth

Give Us Men!

Strong and stalwart ones
Men whom highest hope inspires
Men whom purest honor fires
Men who trample lies beneath them
Men who never fail their brothers
True, however false are others
Men who love God and His Truth.

Give Us Men!

There is but one victory for us all
Men who hear and heed the call
Men who run and jump a wall
(Cowards only miss and fall)
Men who when weary never tire
Men who respond when under fire
God defends the Right!
These are Corpsmen that have shown me
Tender, as the brave are only
Men who tread where saints have trod
Men for Country, Home ---- and God
Men who love God and His Truth."

"I told God that I had done all that I could and that now the result was in His hands; that if this country was to be saved, it was because He so willed it! The burden rolled off my shoulders. My intense anxiety was relieved and in its place came a great trustfulness."

Abraham Lincoln

"My friend, my lord, my rock, my stay
This, dear ones, is Christ Jesus, The Way
Amid all the variables stands true and tall
The light from the lighthouse can guide us all Homeward and upward and happy are we
The peculiar household of The Mystery."

J. Foster Smith
Fifth Corps

"If I were not convinced of the literal return of the Lord, I could not stand the pressure of the ministry."

Dr. Victor Paul Wierwille

"Throughout history, God has always had a hope for His people...Hope is what gave men the fiber and strength to stand on the Word...The hope of the return is the foundation, the motivation, the reason why we stay in fellowship...There is more to building the reality of the hope than just thinking about the gathering together...Every time we renew our minds, we become more like him; and that's the hope."

Rev. Craig Martindale

"Light spilled over the distant space
Splashing the skies with a golden face:
Glowing warmth of a burning heart
To a heart aglow, in awe of grace."

Ken LaPrade, Seventh Corps
