

Silhouetted Morning

I love to see the trees, silhouetted
against the morning sky,

The morning star hanging low in the East,
The vast blue sky stretching out forever,
The Statue of Liberty with her torch brightly burning.

This is a free country
Just as I've been told,
With many glorious patriots' tales
We have yet to unfold,

While looking to God's promises
We refute our yesterdays
By reaching forth to bright tomorrows
With God's Truth we hold today.

Remember ...

"Boldness is freedom and frankness to speak the Word without fear. . . Man would never be complete without the revelation of the Word. . . The only thing that decreases as you get into the Word is the old man. . . He gave his life for us: How can we do less? We only have one life to live. . . It is the attitude in your heart and mind that affects your walk. . . The more you speak in tongues in your private prayer life, the more dynamic your life on earth will be. . . . The more time you give to the Word, the more life you'll have. . . We have life for today and hope for the future. . . The spirit should be the foremost interest in our total being. . . Where there is hope, there is no sorrow. . . The moment the senses are permitted to rule the mind and body, instead of the spirit, calamity results. . . Success is faithfulness. . . It's a privilege and honor to do God's will because it's for our benefit. . . Life was made to be beautiful. . . Never think about something you don't want to happen. . . Stake your knowledge and trust in God, for He alone is your solid foundation. . . Leap out, and God will never drop you. . . When you run up against Jesus Christ, you have to make a decision. . . Everyone believes what he wants to believe. . . We must have separation of church and state, but not separation of truth and state. . . We stand with that rock, Christ Jesus, within us. . . You're either a stumbling block or a stepping stone. . . What you think about Jesus Christ is what will determine what you do in your life. . . Don't read what people say about the Way; read what the Way says about the Word. . . I don't believe we are living by accident; I believe we are living by providence. . . I just let God be God and I love Him. . . You've got to measure every single thing according to the Word. . . When you don't think--that is quitting. . . Yielding to an undisciplined life is quitting. . . It's not what happens to you that counts; it's what you do with what happens to you that counts. . . Anything you can do to move the Word is your absolute minimum responsibility. . . I don't think great wisdom comes with age; it comes with believing. . . There is one way to get started in anything and that is to start. . ."

Corps Quotes . . .

"The love of God is the root of all goodness, in contrast to the love of money being the root of all evil."

Alex Fernandez

"When you are walking with God, you not only have a wall of fire around you; you have a wall of fire below you."

Beth Sportel

"When you quit thinking, you go where habit patterns carry you."

Russ McBrayer

"We open the scriptures for a man to understand; but only God can open a man's understanding of the scriptures."

Dale Sides

"Our fellowship with the Father is based on our knowledge of the Word. When we have a working knowledge of the Word, then we have confidence to fellowship with him."

Lee Armbruster

"When people look at us, they see the label of "The Way Ministry." All we see is the body of Christ, the family of God."

David Giles

"God made it all available, and The Way International explained it all to us."

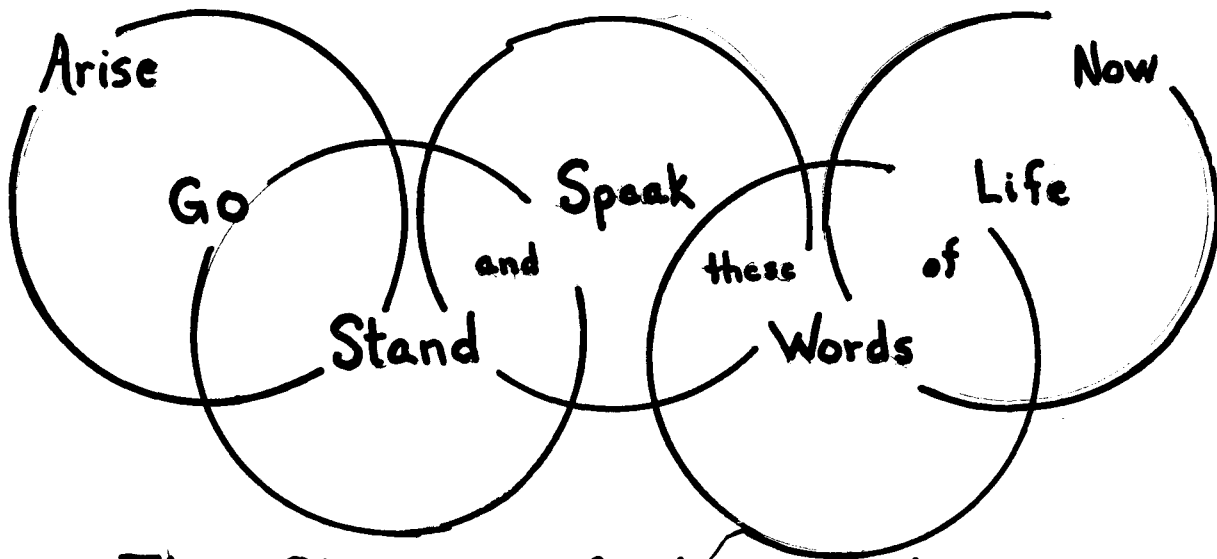

Rev. Bob Moynihan

"Where there is no God, there is no state or nation."

Rev. Randy Anderson

"You're not a teacher unless you motivate people. . . God never guaranteed to us that we would not be hurt, but He did guarantee to us a life that is more than abundant. . . It is not evil to recognize that you made a mistake. . . Thrift without giving isn't anything else but disciplined misery. . . You are evidence of the miraculous being a day-by-day thing. . . You can only reach out according to what you have to give. . . If you think you are not significant, you will never see the "mystery". . . When people see you stand on God's Word, it lets them know what is available. . . Positive Confession--confess yourself through tough situations. . . If you are wondering if what you are teaching is right, check the foundational class."
