As the morning sun brings forth her rays into the light of a new day. So there is a new dawning in my heart the light of God's matchless love,

Like the purity, the excitement, the tenderness of the first crisp beam.
So His love fills my heart a tenderness thrills my soul.

Then I see your smiling face with a warmth that caresses my heart a joy that floods my soul.

Oh how I love you of the Way Corps.
