To My Way Corps, Grads and Non-grads:

God bless and double bless you (we all need it) in the wonderful name of our living lord and savior, Jesus Christ.

Yes, Christ is seated on the right hand of God making intercession for the saints (including The Way Corps) according to the Will of God. Isn't He wonderful?

Think of it: God in Christ in you, yes you, including the hope of glory. How could you as Corps ever dare to do less than your absolute utmost for His Highest? Are you worshipping Him by speaking much in tongues? Have you won someone lately? Are you witnessing? Are you studying to show yourself approved to Him? Are you putting on the mind of Christ, hiding the Word in your heart? Are you enjoying the joy in believing?

I am believably believing, lovingly loving, I am positively positive--I am moving on.

Having read or heard all the sincere, loving, logical, reasonable, good, pure, honest, etc., etc., etc EXCUSES, the fact remains they are excuses--nonvalid--not one. Because of failure so vividly apparent by reason of the greatness of the privileges, I thought for a moment that we might now as a Corps compose a letter to God in the essence of: "Dear God: Since I am special to you and especially blessed, I trust I will not hurt you in any way in not following your request, etc., etc., etc." But, we changed my mind.

Well Corps--IT is over with. Maybe we all learned a big lesson. What do I do now? Quit? NEVER on your life. I just found out some things. I move ahead--The Way Corps moves on. We keep on keeping on, for the Word of God is the Will of God--even if no one believed or if no one carried it out.

Those of you who had your "The Way for Me. . ." in, don't SIT and now file and polish your nails so you can claw those who didn't. Remember, he who is without sin may cast the first stone. The only One I know is Jesus Christ and he isn't casting a stone. Also remember that love covers a multitude of sins. We all need that covering.

God has brought us to this day and hour and He will not forsake us nor allow one promise of His Word to be changed. He is God--His Word is true. I move on.

The Way Corps is still God's best and those who desire God's best and to be the best for God.

Lovingly,
In His service,

Sister Paul Wierwille
