We've a Message to Give . . .

"Having spent the last 10½ months in Hong Kong has made us very thankful for the Word we know," shared Cassandra Chu, Way Corps 11, about her interim year in the Far East spent with Shelloa Graham, also Way Corps 11. "Hong Kong is a tremendous gateway for outreach to the East, and the need for the Word of God there is so evident," she said.

"God did so much for us while we were there so that we could bless the people. Shelloa doesn't even speak Chinese, yet she worked as an English and history teacher for high school students in Hong Kong. One day when a girl in her class had an epileptic seizure, Shelloa was able to pray for the girl and minister healing to her in front of the entire class.

"Another girl who registered for the Power for Abundant Living class was told she would never be able to have children, but we prayed for her and now she is pregnant."

OPENING PRAYER

Friday, June 25, 1982

Each day LIVING VICTORIOUSLY begins with flag raising and a prayer by Dr. Wierwille.

Father, on this Friday, June 25th, I am so thankful for your POWER that has rescued all of us out from the Adversary's clutches. I thank you for having called us out of the darkness of this world into the glorious light and liberty of being your sons and daughters of light. Thank you for your power in your Son living in us, your born-again ones, so that we might work the works of Jesus Christ, and because of your power, even greater works. Father, my heart is "flabbergasted" when I even think of your power, but I am totally "blown away" when I see your power evidenced in behalf of your sons and daughters. Thank you for baring your arm for us this day, that this may truly be a day of LIVING VICTORIOUSLY for you. In the name of Jesus Christ I pray to you this day.
Amen.

I wonder if anyone is trying to get in touch with me? I'd better go to Central Office to check the message board right away!

Rev. Donnie Fugit

"If you do not give when you cannot afford to give, you WILL not give when you can."
Rev. Stanley Reahard

Who Blesses Bless Patrol?

You see them stationed in the woods, in the camping area, at the entrances to the grounds, at all times of the day and night, in all kinds of weather. They are spiritually watching over the grounds, guiding people to the House of His Healing Presence, answering questions, helping and blessing people.

But who blesses the Bless Patrol? Bless Patrol on the evening shift in The Way Woods answered, "You'd be surprised. One night we were given a whole birthday cake. The believers are always trying to bless us, bringing us pretzels, coffee, juice and kisses."

Another shared, "We've even been offered blankets on cool nights. But best of all are the people who love these woods and just stop to chat and hear stories about the old days when Dr. Wierwille used to teach the trees out here. We really love that."

Dear Daily Victory:

"It's not who sings the song, but that the song gets sung," as Dr. Wierwille has taught. It is not of primary importance who teaches the Word of God but that the Word is taught.

LIVING VICTORIOUSLY is a great indication we are developing able and faithful teachers of God's Word. It is a clear demonstration of our ministry being Word-centered, not man-centered.

A Letter Home

Dear Folks,

You may not believe this, but I've been getting up for flag raising at 6:30 a.m. and then breakfast 15 minutes later.

Breakfast time is just too good to miss, even for me. It's like another session of the class, in a way—a time to share and get fueled up for all we will receive during the day. Rev. Tom Jenkinson presides at the head table in our dining tent. He reads God's Word to us, and his insights into the theme for each day really build my excitement to make the day a real masterpiece of learning. All this and cheese blintzes, too. Yum!

We are also very thankful for the Twig meetings that are a part of this class. With such powerful teachings of God's Word all day long, it is wonderful to have this time to release the fullness of our hearts. We get so refreshed by it. It's an amazing truth that Twig is Twig wherever you are and whomever you are with.

Remember that you have God's love and the ability to do something with it. In His power,

Pete
