LIVING VICTORIOUSLY Day by Day

Friday morning Dr. Wierwille explained to the students of LIVING VICTORIOUSLY the inspiration behind his teaching schedule.

"We began with 'The Foundation for Living Victoriously,' which is the Word of God," he said. "And then I taught you what was accomplished for us by 'The Victoriously Living Christ.'"

Then Dr. Wierwille showed us how the entire class builds throughout the two weeks.

Musical Tonight

The musical, Small Change, which premieres tonight at 9:30 p.m. in The Way Big Top Auditorium is a family affair—written, produced, choreographed and played by believers for believers.

The show focuses on three determined people who shoot for the top, only to see their lives compromised by the world. It is a story familiar to many of us, especially as we see them experience no "small change" when God lifts them up to genuine heights.

THANK YOU

A special thanks to all the part-time LIVING VICTORIOUSLY staff who have been serving us during the first week of the class. Your lives have been a wonderful witness of God's heart.

A Letter Home

Dear Folks,

How many times have you ever been to a dance that ended with a word of prayer? If you were here you could say, "At least once." Following an evening session of the class, Dr. Wierwille put on a dance for us, with Branded, TAKIT and other musicians playing the most wonderful music this side of heaven. We danced under the stars on the patio in front of the Outreach Services Center. LIVING VICTORIOUSLY is living God's Word!

I'm beginning to look at all of us who are gathered here as a team. It's like spring-training camp and we are a team of light-bearing athletes drafted by the Coach and being polished by His staff into a finely-tuned unit ready to go out and win every contest.

Today and Sunday are a special Word Over the World LIVING VICTORIOUSLY Weekend. Look out, world! You're going to get what's coming to you!

Bless you,

Pete
