THE EPISTLE TO TITUS.

INTRODUCTORY NOTES.

The apostle Paul had no more highly esteemed fellowlabourer than Titus, yet his name is not mentioned in the Acts. It has been suggested that this is owing to his being the authority to whom Luke is indebted for various portions of the book. A Gentile (Gal. 2. 3), and possibly a native of Crete, the words "Titus, mine own son after the common faith" (Tit. 1. 4) indicate that he was led to the truth by Paul himself. The two were companions in Antioch prior to the Council assembled at Jerusalem as recorded in Acts 15, for to this Council he accompanied the apostle (Gal. 2. 1). Titus is repeatedly referred to in the two Epistles to the Corinthians, to which church he was apparently sent on two occasions: see 2 Cor. 8. 6, and chapters 2 and 7. From this Epistle we learn that after Paul's release from the Roman prison, the two journeyed together and preached in Crete (1. 5, 11, 13), where the apostle left him to "set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city". Later, he was instructed to join Paul at Nicopolis (3. 12), and it is probable that from there he went to Dalmatia (2 Tim. 4. 10). The apostle's affectionate regard for him is shown in 2 Cor. 2. 13; 8. 23.

The Epistle was one of the latest written by Paul, probably in the end of A. D. 67.

- 2 To °speak evil of °no man, to be °no brawlers, but °gentle, °shewing all °meekness °unto all °men.
- B 3 For we ourselves also were °sometimes °foolish, °disobedient, deceived, °serving divers °lusts and °pleasures, °living °in °malice and °envy, °hateful, and hating one another.
- A 4 But °after that the °kindness and °love of °God our °Saviour toward man °appeared, 5 °Not °by works °of °righteousness which we °have done, but °according to His mercy He saved us, °by °the °washing of °regeneration, and °renewing °of the °Holy Ghost, 6 Which He °shed °on us °abundantly, °through °Jesus Christ our °Saviour; 7 °That being °justified by His °grace, we should °be made heirs °according to the °hope of °eternal °life.
- D 8 °This is a °faithful °saying, °and these things I °will that thou °affirm constantly, °that they which have °believed °in °God might be °careful to °maintain °good works. These things are good and °profitable °unto °men.
- C 9 But °avoid °foolish questions, and °genealogies, and °contentions, and °strivings °about the law; for they are °unprofitable and °vain.
- B 10 A °man that is an °heretick, °after °the first and second °admonition reject; 11 °Knowing that he that is such is °subverted, and °sinneth, being °condemned of himself.
- A 12 When I shall °send °Artemas °unto thee, or °Tychicus, be °diligent to come °unto me °to °Nicopolis: for I have °determined there to °winter. 13 °Bring °Zenas the lawyer and °Apollon on their journey °diligently, °that °nothing be °wanting °unto them. 14 And let °ours also learn to °maintain °good works °for °necessary °uses, °that they be °not °unfruitful. 15 All that are °with me °salute thee. °Greet them that °love us °in °the °faith. °Grace be °with you all. °Amen.
